

STUDY PROCESS AND GOALS

The overarching goal of the Rock Creek Far West Livability Study is to identify opportunities for safer travel for residents of and visitors to the study area, and to improve the transportation network, regardless of how you get around.